We make it, yeah baby!

Bingo, our project has been accepted by the wemakeit.ch website for crowd-funding.

How awesome is that ? They hosted Fri-Son's big project for the distribution and creation of their 30 year anniversary book, containing a lot of vintage pictures of artists such as Kurt Kobain and posters of past shows.

Our project started on May 1st and we're counting on your support to be able to finally release Seilen's first solo album.

We have 45 days to make it. If you like Seilen and you want to finally get your hands on her first album, then please, share this information around family, team or entourage.

There will be some really nice gifts on the wemakeit.ch webpage as a thank you for supporting the project. To be part of the adventure, simply click below:

Working hard on the new EP II

Last time, we gave you a heads up on Shaypah, we're not stopping there! Seilen's been discussing on featuring an upcoming MC and producer on the "E.P/I.E" album, SPOKENN from Miami, Florida. His songs are really worth the detour!

Seilen has to thank Soundcloud again for this musical encounter. A little word from SPOKENN:

"I am an emcee / music producer / songwriter / studio mixing & mastering engineer / arranger amongst other things.

The circle of musicians I work with are Pele, and Alan Meneses. They are all talented. While I've been doing this music thing for some time now, I haven't really put out a concrete project yet.

Currently I'm producing and featuring in many EPs, Albums, and mix tapes to the point I guess I lose focus on my own things.

If you need any work done, or any questions, Hollerate."

As you can read it here, this is one cool cat that also deserves mad support.
